Special requirements

We are happy to cater for allergies and special dietary requirements wherever possible, however prior notice is required.

Please note that high tea menus are made up of predominantly sandwiches, quiches, cakes, slices, muffins, cookies, macarons, scones and other 'afternoon tea' treats. This makes it very difficult to provide a gluten-free, vegan or diabetic 'high tea' menu...although we will always try our best with notice!

Children under two years (infants) may attend high teas free of charge. Children over two years are subject to full adult pricing, with the option of teacups of milk or small glasses of lemonade as the included drink.
